ART WEEK

14 - 20 MARCH 2022

SHIMANIE

A multi-disciplinary artist and Art Teacher based in the Maldives, who is practicing mainly with traditional and digital forms of Art and illustrations; she is also trained in Adaptive Arts (as an art teacher for people with disabilities and neurodiversities). Her goal is to make Art more accessible and inclusive to people who have been neglected in this community a voice and a platform for expression to share this passion.

Rooba has been drawing since she was a little girl and being a creator felt like it was on her soul. She has been learning and discovering herself in the creative journey. Likes to learn new techniques at different art courses, and combining different variations is how she likes to experiment. This can mean different mediums like acrylic paint, pencil, ink, digital painting to different themes like fantasy, dark art, artistic nudes, landscapes and more.

ROOBA

LUJAIN

From an early age, Lujain has had interests in different forms of art and creative works. Recently, he came across Mixed Media Arts, which fascinated him, and his journey started in 2019. As a nail artist, his projects contain thousands of screws, which are later painted by Oil color. His passion for this kind of art, dedication and patience are combined with one of the most iconic parts of the Maldives, the marine life.
